2020-2021

LEADERSHIP HABERSHAM

ADULT APPLICATION

Program Description

The Leadership Habersham program identifies potential community leaders and provides them opportunities to develop leadership and problem-solving skills and go “behind the scenes” to learn how our community works. The Chamber is in its 31st consecutive year of Leadership Habersham.

Leadership Habersham members will participate in an opening session on leadership skills from the University of Georgia’s J. W. Fanning Institute of Leadership Development, travel to meet local entrepreneurs and business executives for tours of various community businesses throughout the year, visit the State Capitol and learn more about Chamber functions and the history of Habersham County, 25 adult participants are accepted into the program.

Leadership Habersham members are required to:

- Attend nine meetings a year which may consist of half-day sessions or full-day sessions.
- One full-day session includes a trip to the state capitol to participate in “Habersham Day at the Capitol.”
- Submit completed application.

Applications and background checks are due by 3 p.m. December 4th, 2020 to the Habersham County Chamber office.
